4. NARRATIVE SECTION (This section is to be used to record specific and personal characteristics of this employee which are not adequately covered in the rating sections above. Any factors rated as a 1 or a 5 in the above sections must be articulated in this section.)

Personal Appearance - Lt. Brodt reports to work in the proper clothing attire at all times.

Interpersonal Skills--Lt. Brodt has demonstrated his capability with communicating well with his subordinate supervisors and officers. I believe this is one of his strongest attributes.

Attendance/Punctuality – Lt. Brodt arrives on-time and prepared for his shift. Lt. Brodt utilized 5 sick days in this rating period.

Effectiveness of Delegation--Lt. Brodt delegates necessary tasks to his subordinate supervisors and officers so that he can concentrate on the most important functions that need his attention.

How can this employee best improve his/her performance? (Include setting Career /Performance Goals).

Lt. Brodt has completed nearly 19 years with the agency. Lt. Brodt is a trusted and relied upon member of the command staff as well as being a dedicated member of the METRO SWAT team for over a decade. Lt. Brodt should continue to master his knowledge of the Utica Police Department Policy and Procedure Manual, NYS Penal Law, Criminal Procedure Law and all relevant state and local laws. Lt. Brodt should attend trainings on supervision in an effort to maximize his efforts to gain the most out of each employee that works under his command.

(Goal settings Continue From Front)

5. OVERALL PERFORMANCE RATING: This overall rating is to be based on the following factors:

- A. The employee's performance in his/her present assignment during the evaluation period; AND
- B. Consideration of the general needs of the Department, comparing the capabilities and characteristics of this employee to all other employees of equal rank and pay grade known to the evaluator.

4. NARRATIVE SECTION (This section is to be used to record specific and personal characteristics of this employee which are not adequately covered in the rating sections above. Any factors rated as a 1 or a 5 in the above sections must be articulated in this section.)

As a Platoon Commander Lt. Brodt sets the tone in regards to his appearance. He is an example to his personnel of how they should appear.

Lt. Brodt has used 3 medical days this evaluaiton period.

Lt. Brodt is very conscious of deadlines for his monthly and internally generated reports. He does not let them linger and has them completed in a very timely manner. They are thorough, precise, and well done.

Lt. Brodt is a senior member of the [REDACTED] As such he can be counted on to perform any duty required of the Team.

Lt. Brodt has assumed command of A - Platoon which is the midnight shift. This has I am sure required an adjustment to his life. Lt. Brodt has dealt with that adjustment and performs well despite of the change.

Lt. Brodt is the liasion for the agency to the mental helath community. He performs well in this function and represents the agency well.

How can this employee best improve his/her performance? (Include setting Career /Performance Goals).
Lt. Brodt should continue to learn the ins and outs of the duties of a command staff Officer. There are many duties related to this rank that reach outside of the Platoon. Lt. Brodt has done well adapting and just needs to continue on the present course.

3. NARRATIVE SECTION (This section is to be used to record specific and personal characteristics of this employee which are not adequately covered in the rating sections above. Any factors rated as a 1 or a 5 in the above sections must be articulated in this section.)

Lt. Brodt is a newly promoted Lieutenant who has assumed Command of A - Platoon. There is much to learn and I am confident Lt. Brodt will engage in learning the ins and outs of the Platoon.

Lt. Brodt has not used any sick time during this rating period.

During this rating period Lt. Brodt has completed several fact finding investigations regarding Officers' use of force, damage to city property, and Officer injuries etc. These have been completed accurately and with thoroughness.

Lt. Brodt should take advice from Senior Lieutenants and use it constructively to complete his tasks.

Lt. Brodt remains an active member of the [REDACTED] and can be counted on in any situation presented to the Team.

How can this employee best improve his/her performance? (Include setting Career /Performance Goals).

Lt. Brodt has been promoted to a Command level position. With this position comes a great amount of responsibility. As he continues to become experienced in this position he should take the opportunity to learn from other Command Officers and use that experience to better himself and his Platoon.

General Appearance: Howie is meticulous about his appearance and projects a positive image/disposition.

Attendance: Howie called in sick twice during this rating period.

Punctuality: Howie and I were assigned to the same squad and day in/day out, he was always on time. He also prepared the reading matter for roll call and was up to date on any events taking place that day.

Reliability: Howie is very conscientious and always completes his assignments in a timely manner. He is also very attentive to the needs of the department as a whole. He attends monthly meetings at the office of mental health and is a member of the [REDACTED] team, which requires him to be available at a moment's notice.

Knowledge of Laws, Policies...etc: Howie prepared himself for promotion by asking a lot of questions about what paperwork goes where and what notifications have to be made in certain situations.

Training/Coaching of Subordinates: Howie is never afraid to speak up during roll call if something is amiss. He strives to keep his officers working efficiently and effectively.

How can this employee best improve his/her performance? (Include setting Career /Performance Goals).

Howie is now the platoon commander of the night shift. He is learning a new job that has new and different challenges. From what i've observed, he's adjusting well and maintaining his conscientious approach to police work and supervision.

Subject: Directed Patrol Unit

Lt. Capri,

Sir,

I'm writing to express my interest for assignment in the newly formed Directed Patrol unit. Although I have been recently transferred to CID and have less than three months left in my training assignment I feel that this is an opportunity worth sacrificing a permanent investigative position for now. I will have seven complete years with the department in August. I have worked in CPU for two and a half years and the [REDACTED] for 15 months. In that time I have gained a wealth of experience in proactive police work and community relations. I have specialized knowledge that I have gained that I think would be very beneficial to the unit. I know the men in the unit personally and I feel that you have assembled a really solid group of officers all very motivated and willing to learn new things. I feel that the timing is right and I can help to take this unit very far and do some good work. Any consideration would be appreciated.

Respectfully,

PO Howard Brodt

10/14/2010

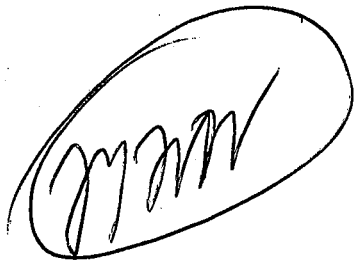

SUBJECT: Patrolman Howard Brodt

TO: Chief of Police: Mark W. Williams

Patrolman Howard Brodt is currently assigned to the Utica Police Department's Special Operations Unit on a temporary basis. Patrolman Brodt joined the Special Operations Unit in May, 2009 however, he has been a member of the Community Policing Unit since June, 2005. Patrolman Brodt possess many qualities that are assets to the Special Operations Unit. Patrolman Brodt has excellent verbal communication skills, writing skills, street knowledge, is a member of the department's [REDACTED] Team, is well versed in the area of narcotics investigations and he supports the goals of the Special Operations Unit and the Utica Police Department.

Patrolman Brodt is someone that I depend on. He is the second most senior officer in the unit and he is very valuable as he is a steady, calming influence on the less experienced officers in the unit. Ptlm. Brodt is also hard working, trustworthy, honest, reliable, and someone that I can count on to get the job done when I am not present.

I, along with Sgt. Geddes, would recommend that Patrolman Brodt be permanently assigned to the Utica Police Department's Special Operations Unit however, he has expressed to us that the current hours of the Special Operations Unit conflict with his personal life and with the next shift bid in January, he will be requesting to be transferred to a day assignment. I would highly recommend Ptlm. Brodt for a future special assignment as he is a valuable employee to this agency.

Criminal Investigation Division

To: Chief of Police
C. A. Pylman

I have been offered a temporary training position in Criminal Investigations, which I choose to accept. I have made this choice knowing fully that this is a temporary training assignment scheduled for six to eighteen months. I also realize this assignment will not provide a preferential status for me when it is completed. I have been told and understand that this is a training opportunity and my eventual reassignment to the Uniform Patrol Platoons will be based on the needs of the Department.

Chief Pylman,

Sir, I am writing this narrative in order to express my interest in a temporary training assignment in the Utica Police Department's Special Investigations Unit. I have a very strong interest and desire in narcotics investigations and I would work very hard in such an assignment. As a patrolman I always try to give one hundred percent in my work. I have made a number of street level drug arrests and I wish to expand upon my knowledge and experience. Any consideration would be very much appreciated.

Subject: Re: Man Threatening Suicide on the North Utica Bridge

Good morning Mayor,

I just wanted to take the time to inform you of a distraught man threatening suicide, which occurred yesterday evening on the North Utica bridge. The outstanding team work exhibited by the following Utica police officers helped preserve his life of a distraught man, who needed immediate intervention:

Sergeant Starr Ray Wooden,
Sergeant Howard Brodt,
PO Jessica Dodge,
PO Christopher Vomer,
PO Patrick West, and PO Michael Balio.

On July 27, 2017 at around 8:35 pm, Officer Vomer met with a [REDACTED], of [REDACTED]. Mrs. [REDACTED] advised the officer that her son- [REDACTED] had been text messaging her saying he wanted to die, didn't want to live anymore and don't come looking for him because it is too late. Mrs. [REDACTED] further advised Officer Vomer that her son had previous suicide attempts and was autistic. Officers Vomer and West conducted a search in the immediate area for [REDACTED] but could not locate him. Sergeant Wooden enlisted the services of 911 to [REDACTED] cell phone in an attempt to learn his whereabouts, however [REDACTED]

Sergeant Wooden put out a "BOLO" (be on the lookout) for [REDACTED] for all the police units to be aware of and shortly thereafter Officer Balio located [REDACTED] straddling the railing of the North Utica bridge.

Sergeant Brodt and police officers Dodge, West and Balio eventually talked [REDACTED] into voluntarily getting off the railing and after a brief struggle he was taken into protective custody for a mental health evaluation.

Mayor, I am extremely proud of the actions by the above police officers, who exhibited outstanding teamwork, communication and compassionate care on this life or death incident. These officers are a credit to the police department and the city they serve.

Note: Megan, please place a copy of this email in each officer's personnel file.

Dear Mayor Palmieri,

I want to bring to your attention the exceptional service of one of your police officers, Supervisor Howard Brodt. He exhibited the highest level of professionalism, understanding, and genuine concern for my son [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] (special needs) has a difficult time with understanding a healthy relationship. The UPD has been called a few times to his girlfriend's apartment for domestic fights over the last few months. Brodt suggested that he could come by the house to explain things to [REDACTED] about how fighting could get out of hand. The conversation between the two of them has had a lasting positive effect on [REDACTED]

Supervisor Brodt exemplified "Community Policing." He exhibited genuine concern and professionalism toward [REDACTED]. Brodt went above and beyond, he is a great representative for all of UPD. He has done Utica Proud.

Sincerely,

Dear Chief Mark Williams,

On the night of Friday, January 9, 2015, I witnessed 5 Utica Police Officers work as they tried to locate a missing child. They were compassionate, thorough and efficient leaving no stone unturned till they found this child. After two and half hours of searching various clues, buses, and interviewing neighboring households, these men returned this young girl to her gravely upset mother. Car 51 was present along with another car. I do not know the names of these officers due to the trauma of the evening. They were professional and caring in every way. The officers need to know that they were and are appreciated for their guardianship of our citizens of Utica.

Fellow Police Officers:

You are to be commended on a job well done! I want to express my deepest thanks to all of you for your assistance with regard to the tragic incident that occurred on March 13th, 2013 in the Village of Herkimer. Due to the mass shooting in which four people were killed and two critically injured, the community was thrown into turmoil. Thankfully, with the many law enforcement agencies involved, the suspect was located and the situation was brought to an end within 48 hours.

This undoubtedly was a very dangerous occurrence and because of the outstanding work and performance by each of you along with neighboring law enforcement officers, this terrible tragedy concluded before any more lives were lost.

We are very proud you.

Sincerely yours,

I received a very complimentary telephone call from former Mayor [REDACTED] On March 8th, he was involved in a motor vehicle accident at the intersection of Oneida Street and the Parkway and the two of you responded. He called to express his thanks as well as commend you on the courtesy and professionalism that was exhibited. Your demeanor and actions left him with a great impression of our men and women in the Utica Police Department.

For a former mayor to compliment our police officers on a job well done is certainly received with great pride and humility. Thanks to the two of you for being such great representatives of our agency. Copies of this correspondence will be placed in your respective personnel files.

Keep up your good work!

Officer Brodt:

Congratulations on a great job in observing a vehicle on Eagle and West Streets on Tuesday evening, July 14th, committing several vehicle and traffic violations. In attempting to stop the vehicle, a short pursuit of suspects ensued. However, subsequent to the stop of the vehicle, a loaded handgun was recovered.

Both suspects were arrested and charged with numerous offenses. One suspect was charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon 2nd Degree, Class C Felony, two arrests for Assault 3rd, Arrest Warrant for Harrassment 2nd degree, and numerous other New York Vehicle and Traffic Violations. The other suspect was charged with Criminal Possession of a Weapon 2nd Degree, Class C Felony.

We are proud of you – continue the good work!

Officers:

Congratulations to each of you on a splendid job - well done.

We understand there has been a rise in complaints regarding quality of life issues around the Oneida Square area. The Utica Police Department's Directed Patrol Unit, in partnership with the NYS Troopers working under "Operation Impact" has taken a zero tolerance approach to violations of law in this area.

On Tuesday, June 16, 2009, due to numerous complaints received, five people were arrested and charged with drug related offenses in the Oneida Square area. All are from Utica and range in age from 16 years to 24 years of age.

Our thanks to each of you for your continued support and efforts in this initiative. We are proud of you!

LETTER FOR FILE

Lieutenant Brian Bansner, Officer Howard Brodt, Officer Alexander Castilla, Officer John Lomonico, Officer Serif Seferagic, Officer Ricardo Hill

On December 18, 2014, officers were dispatched to 721 Tracy Street for a possible burglary in progress. Several officers converged on the scene and began establishing a perimeter. Officers Brodt and Seferagic were both assigned as training officers and had recruits assigned as their partners. All officers took up perimeter positions and held the scene. Officer John Lomonico equipped himself with a department shotgun and took a position on the front east corner of the structure. Lieutenant Bansner arrived on scene and was briefed by Officer Lomonico. Officer Lomonico explained that he heard movement inside the apartment while on the perimeter. The officers also discovered a chair propped up against a window to assist the burglar with his entry. While officers were attempting to make entry, they were confronted by a male who was hiding inside. The officers managed to remove the suspect from the home and take him into custody. The Criminal Investigations Division was called to the scene and the suspect was arrested.

Because of the officers' teamwork and coordination, they were able to take a burglar into custody without incident. The officers' communication skills and apprehension techniques assisted them in bringing this incident to a quick close. Lieutenant Brian Bansner, Officer Howard Brodt, Officer Alexander Castilla, Officer John Lomonico, Officer Serif Seferagic, and Officer Ricardo Hill bring honor to themselves and the entire Utica Police Department.

On Sept 18, 2014, METRO SWAT, a multi agency team, was tasked with executing a high-risk, no-knock search warrant at a location on Sunset Ave. The information supplied by Narcotics Investigators included that the occupants were armed, in possession of a large quantity of narcotics and there was the possibility that one of the occupants was a suspect in a homicide. After being briefed, it was determined the best plan of action would be a "surround and call out", a progressive concept not regularly practiced on the East coast but widely accepted on the West coast. The plan required operators to scale a ladder and breach second floor windows from a rooftop and other operators to breach and hold doorways, forcing the occupants to surrender and come out peacefully. The plan was executed flawlessly and several handguns and a large quantity of narcotics were seized.

Due to their teamwork, courage, and ability to adapt quickly to a new concept, several dangerous people were removed from the streets. For this incident, and the many high risk entries that they make throughout the year, these officers are receiving the unit citation. They bring honor to themselves and their respective agencies.

HONORABLE SERVICE

Awarded to

POLICE OFFICER HOWARD BRODT

On September 17, 2013, at 11:15 a.m., Officer Howard Brodt was on duty in Car 54 in South Utica. Officer Brodt observed a male riding a bicycle with a flat panel tv propped up on the handlebars. Officer Brodt, being very familiar with his zone, did not recognize this party to be from the area he was currently in, and knowing there have been several recent burglaries in this area, he conducted a citizen stop of the male. While Officer Brodt was questioning the male, he asked if he had any weapons on him and the male said he had a knife. Officer Brodt detained the male in handcuffs at this time and while patting him down for officer safety, he found the male to be in possession of several plastic containers, each containing several collector's coins. The male was brought to headquarters to be interviewed further and while this interview was taking place, a call was given out for a burglary in the same area that Officer Brodt had first encountered the male on the bike. The male had in fact committed the burglary that other units were en route to and the items the male was in possession of matched what was reported to be taken.

Officer Brodt's pride in the area he patrols and his immediate actions in this incident confirm his dedication and professionalism towards his duties and they reflect highly on himself as an individual and bring credit to the Utica Police Department.

POLICE OFFICER HOWARD BRODT

On 11/2/12 at 14:15 hours, PO Howard Brodt, PO Michael Petrie and PO Dzenan Sabanovic responded along with other officers to 911 Arnold Avenue for a report of an Emotionally Disturbed Person armed with a shotgun. PO Brodt arrived on the scene and began to collect information from family members of the subject in question when he heard the distinct sound of a gunshot come from inside the residence. PO Brodt alerted other responding units and a perimeter was rapidly established by those units. PO Brodt continued to gather information and protect the emotionally disturbed person's family and bystanders.

As officers were securing the area around the house, additional shots were fired from inside the house. PO Petrie secured the west side of the front of the house and he observed a man in the house moving around a window holding a large item. The man turned to PO Petrie and remarked through the window that he wanted to kill himself. PO Petrie observed that the man was holding a shotgun and called to him and tried to convince the man not to do it. The man turned and walked away from the window and fired another round off in the house that caused debris to be blown out of the house and on to the lawn. PO Sabanovic arrived on the scene and began to employ his training as a hostage negotiator. PO Sabanovic established cell phone communications with the man and as they were conversing, the individual fired another round from the shotgun in the house.

PO Sabanovic called the man again and reestablished communications with him. After a few minutes, PO Sabanovic was able to convince the emotionally disturbed man to come out the front door of his house. The man came out and threw the shotgun he was firing on the front lawn of the house and then he went back into the house. After a short while, the man returned to the front porch and surrendered without further incident. The solid professional teamwork and communicative skill displayed by these officers in the most unpredictable of situations in the face of clearly devastating deadly force reflects great credit upon themselves personally as individuals and professionally as Police Officers. I believe their conduct in the face of this danger is worthy of Commendation for Exceptional Duty in the face of a deadly situation.

EXCEPTIONAL DUTY

Awarded to

POLICE OFFICER HOWARD BRODT

In January 2011, information was received regarding an illegal cabaret/private night club on Genesee Street. This club was being operated with complete disregard of the City of Utica rules and regulations and a license regarding this premise and private club had never been approved. This private club became a constant problem for neighboring businesses and the general public.

By April 2011, Inv. Searchilli began receiving information from a confidential informant regarding narcotic activity and illegal weapons possession inside the club. Between midnight and 2 AM, there would be usually less than 100 patrons. After 2 AM, the club filled with patrons over its capacity of 300 to 400 patrons. Armed security would be posted throughout the club and could be identified as they would be attired wearing white batting gloves. Inv. Searchilli was provided street names of the clubs organizers, managers and security personnel, who were all identified thru investigation in the club. At 3:45 AM, the music would be turned off, security would display handguns, assault type rifles, and sawed off shotguns and order the patrons out of the building, escorting them through the rear exit onto Broadway Street.

The METRO Narcotics Unit members began multiple surveillance details and were able to develop enough probable cause to obtain a search warrant. There were possibly 9 handguns, 4 long guns and 6-12 people inside. On April 16, 2011, an extremely high risk search warrant was executed at the club by METRO SOU & Utica New Hartford ERT. The premise was entered & secured without incident and police located 13 people, a 9mm handgun and 9mm ammunition, a .308 assault rifle and .308 rounds and multiple open liquor bottles and marijuana. Five people were arrested and charged with various drug charges, ABC and City Ordinance violations. One suspect was also wanted by US immigration and another had a Parole Warrant.

This operation was not an every day UPD investigation or search warrant execution. It was extremely complicated, intense for METRO investigators, and high risk to members of the ERT.

Shortly before midnight on April 26, 2005, Officers Brodt, Lindsey and Murphy responded to a call for shots fired in the Cornhill area. On arrival, the officers began interviewing persons at the scene when they apprehended a male who tossed a loaded handgun and fled. The officers pursued this suspect through yards and were able to apprehend him about a block away. The gun had been stolen from Georgia.

Due to the alertness and aggressive police work by Officers Brodt, Lindsey and Murphy, they were able to quickly diffuse a dangerous situation and apprehend a felon. They are a credit to themselves and the entire Utica Police Department.

On July 4th, 2007, Officers Donn Greico and Howard Brodt were on routine patrol when they noticed two males sitting on a porch. One of the males was smoking a marijuana cigarette. The officers approached the suspects and one of them became violent and aggressive. As the officers tried to calm him down, the other male tried to run away. The officers gave chase, and a struggle ensued. As the officers struggled with that suspect, numerous other individuals began to surround and threaten the officers. Officer Arlene Hernandez responded to their calls for assistance and was instrumental in dispersing the crowd and protecting the two officers from further attack. Once arrested, the suspect was found to be in possession of a loaded semi-automatic handgun.

The courageous actions of the officers under extremely dangerous conditions display their bravery and dedication to duty. They are a credit not only to themselves, but to the entire Utica Police Department.

Lt. Howard Brodt
C Platoon Commander
Uniformed Patrol Division

Lt. Brodt,

On 12/16/20 PSU began an investigation of Lt. Brodt into the allegation that he called [REDACTED] and his [REDACTED]

On December 18, 2020, Sgt. Rios requested a narrative from Lt. Brodt in regards to the allegation.

On 12/18/20 Lt. Brodt supplied PSU with his completed narrative as requested.

Lt. Brodt describes the incident in the following manner;

“When these parties were brought to police HQ their contempt continued with vulgarities and boasting in regards to physically attacking [REDACTED] on scene. I found the disdain and hostility towards officer’s on-scene as well as at police HQ to be unconscionable. I was listening to all this in the Lt’s office and initially tried to calm the subjects down. Their behavior continued at which time I raised my voice and said that they were all acting like a [REDACTED]. In retrospect I regret using this choice of words and as a police lieutenant I should be setting a better example to my Sgt’s and Officers in terms of composure and professionalism. Professionalism and composure in high stress situations is something I always preach to my subordinates and the hallmark of any reputable police agency. I have prided myself in professionalism throughout my career spanning over 18 years and my personnel record reflects this. In this particular moment I had a lapse in judgement in the words I chose to which I take complete and full responsibility for my actions.”

Lt. Brodt in his narrative takes full responsibility for his action and his speech.

The allegation alleged by [REDACTED] that Lt. Brodt called them [REDACTED] has been verified by Lt’s Brodt’s narrative and the basis for sustaining this complaint.

As a result of the investigation, it was determined that you have violated Department Procedural Manual:

1.17 GENERAL RULES OF CONDUCT:

1. Employees shall conduct themselves at all times, both on and off-duty, in such a manner as to reflect the highest standards of the law enforcement profession.
- B. Courtesy;
1. Employees shall be courteous, civil and tactful toward any other employee or person in the performance of their duties when in private, in public, and during telephone, radio and electronic communications.

Last Revision Date 6/7/2016

1.19 RESPONSIBILITIES OF COMMAND OFFICERS AND SUPERVISORS:

A. Command;

2. Supervisors must provide a good example in both conduct and appearance, have a thorough understanding of the rules and regulations, policies and procedures of the department, and shall assist and instruct subordinates in the proper performance of their duties.

Command discipline is the resolution of disciplinary issues through the mutual consent of the accused member and the Chief of Police. This command discipline is in lieu of a formal disciplinary action through the process mandated by Article 5, Title B, Section 75 of the New York State Civil Service Law and the Collective Bargaining Agreement. You have accepted responsibility for your actions and have elected to accept the discipline stipulated in this letter. Command discipline was determined based on the totality of circumstances of this investigation. Several factors were considered including your truthfulness and admissions as well as previous related incidents.

On January 21, 2021, a Command Discipline hearing was commenced. You were offered PBA representation and you DECLINED. We came to the following resolution.

- A) You accept the findings of the investigation.
- B) You accept responsibility for violating the Departmental Procedural Manual.
- C) You accept this Letter of Reprimand.
- D) You also understand that in the future, this behavior or any other violation of Departmental Rules or Regulations of a similar nature will be subject to further disciplinary action.

You are being furnished a copy of this letter. The original with acknowledgment, signed by you, will be placed in your personnel file.
