Dear Officer Williams:

Congratulations on being honored by the Utica Police Department for exceptional conduct in the line of duty.

Today's police officers have to utilize bravery, good judgment, and patience just performing their day-to-day duties, so your actions certainly deserve special commendation.

There is probably no greater on-the-job reward than realizing that your actions have helped make life in Utica better, and that your work is appreciated by others.

I wish you continued success in your law enforcement career.

Sincerely,

Dear Officer Williams:

Congratulations on being honored by the Utica Police Department for exceptional conduct in the line of duty.

Today's police officers often must respond to dangerous situations where good judgment, bravery, and patience have to be exercised all at once. Your actions certainly deserve special commendation.

There is probably no greater on-the-job reward than realizing that your actions have helped make Utica a safer place, and that your work is appreciated by others.

I wish you continued success in the field of law enforcement!

UTICA — City police Chief C. Allan Pylman wishes he had 100 more employees like Lt. Mark Williams.

"He has all those qualities that one looks for in a supervisor," Pylman said. "He is intelligent, hard-working, sets responsibilities and holds people accountable. He works well with the public and responds to direction well."

Pylman said it was Williams' enthusiasm for the job that convinced him to nominate the shift commander for a stint at the FBI National Academy in Quantico, Va. On March 18, Williams returned from Quantico, one graduate in a class of 240 from around the world.

The purpose of the FBI National Academy, Williams said, is to promote cooperation between federal and local governments. Williams studied forensics, leadership, law, death investigation and investigation alongside the best of the best in law enforcement.

He said it was similar to being in college. For 10 weeks, Williams lived in a dorm and got up at 6:30 a.m. to be in class by 8. But while the classes stimulated his mental abilities, the physical training challenged his physical abilities.

"I got ready on a treadmill," Williams said about the yellow brick road, a 2.8 mile run through a Marine Corps obstacle course. "But once I hit the streets, I was lucky to do a mile."

Williams said being a police officer is similar to being in the family business. His father, the late William Williams, was a captain in the Utica department. His uncle, Gwen Williams, was a detective and his brother, Billy, is also on the force.

"Being around them influenced me," said Williams, who has served on the force for 17 years. "I always looked up to my dad."

With 30 people under him, Williams said he thoroughly enjoys what he does. And taking a leadership class at the academy enhanced that feeling.

"I got the most out of that leadership class," Williams said. "I came away with a greater appreciation for the personnel under me. I have good people under me. They make me look good."

Though his role is mostly supervisory, Williams said he loves going out on the streets, as well as his part-time security job at Thomas R. Proctor Senior High School.

"I take a personal interest in their problems," he said. "If someone has a problem, we try to address it."

Dear Deputy Chief Benzo:

I am indeed pleased to extend an invitation to Lieutenant Mark Williams to attend the next session of the FBI National Academy. We look forward to having him in attendance. If circumstances have arisen which will preclude your candidate from attending this session, please inform me as soon as possible.

The FBI National Academy is one of the most important training programs that we can provide to our brethren in law enforcement. After graduation, we encourage participation in programs sponsored by the FBI National Academy Association. The programs and training sessions will continue to enhance previous training and education received while attending the National Academy.

Lieutenant Williams has already received a set of FBI National Academy general instructions and course registration forms. These forms have been received by us and forwarded to the FBI National Academy Admissions Office.

Sincerely,

Dear Chief Rotundo:

On behalf of the members and supporters of MADD New York State, thank you for your participation in Project ZERO, the statewide blanket patrols. We appreciate your efforts to remove impaired drivers from our streets, save lives and prevent injuries.

We know that police work and particularly DWI enforcement, can at times be tedious and frustrating. We want you to know that MADD recognizes your efforts, applauds your dedication, and appreciates your diligence. Thank you for making the roads of New York safer for us all.

Dear Chief Rotundo,

On December 4th, 1997 a convenience store clerk in the Town of Schuyler, Herkimer County was the victim of a strong arm robbery.

Shortly after the notice of the robbery was broadcast, Patrolman Mark Williams of your department stopped a vehicle that matched the description of the one used in the robbery. Patrolman Williams and Trooper [REDACTED] Jr. of our Marcy barracks, continued the investigation and developed sufficient probable cause to arrest the subject for the robbery. The defendant later provided a full confession to investigators regarding his involvement in the crime.

Please accept my appreciation for a job well done and please convey our thanks to Patrolman Williams.

Best wishes to you and the Utica Police Department in 1998.

Sincerely,

Re: Officer Mark Williams

Dear Chief Rotundo:

As per our telephone conversation this morning, I want to put into writing for documentation my respect, appreciation and gratitude for one of your fine patrolman, Officer Mark Williams.

Officer Williams clearly demonstrated genuine concern for my safety and well-being by apprising me of an impending flat tire that I was unaware of. He was alert to the fact that I had lost my hub cap and retrieved it for me with a noticeable sense of joy and satisfaction. In just those few minutes, having never met Officer Williams, did he epitomize clearly, the meaning behind the word - public servant.

Officer Williams who undoubtedly will claim he was just doing his duty revealed much more than his skills and professionalism. He revealed compassion, respect, sensitivity and gave witness, in the most complimentary manner, a positive perception and dignity to the uniform he wore.

By all means, Chief Rotundo, applaud and congratulate Officer Mark Williams, for reflecting The Utica Police Department in a most positive and favorable manner - he did this city proud!

Please tell him for me, he made a lasting and positive impression, on this lady in distress, that I will treasure for the rest of my life.

Sincerely,

Dan LaBella

Utica Police Department
413 Oriskany Street West

Dear Chief LaBella:

This past July and August, 8 Utica Police Officers went above and beyond volunteering their free time coaching inner city youth in the inaugural PAL (Police Athletic League) summer basketball league at the Boys and Girls Club located at 755 Lansing Street in Utica.

Police Officers Starr Rae Wooden, Kevin Strife, Patrick Murphy, Damien Golden, Anthony Aurience, David Chrillo, Paul Paladino and Charles Parkosewich embraced this opportunity to have the youth (and adults) of this community see them in a different light and they too, see the children differently. Per [REDACTED] a participant in the league and a currently a college freshman at Jefferson Community College, "I think the league was really fun. The coaches (police officers) were real cool and they helped out a lot. The league took a lot of kids off the streets. I think the league should happen every summer so kids could enjoy themselves instead of messing up on the streets. [REDACTED] added, "We got to see the policemen and policewoman as cool people, not bad, but friendly. I think this might help to improve the (police, community) overall relationship."

I believe this summer's PAL was a major step in improving police and youth relations in our community, consider this initiative a success and a start to continue to build upon. Your Utica Police Officers were the major reason this initiative was a success!

Deputy Chief Mark Williams was a huge advocate of this project and was involved from day 1. His suggestions, advice and support were vital and proved invaluable in all aspects of the initiative.

The Utica Police Department and the residents of the City of Utica are very fortunate to have Deputy Chief Williams and these dedicated police officers protect and serve our community.

Sincerely,

Robert J. Roth

Dear Sir ~

I would like to take this opportunity to inform you of two of your staff men, who, in my opinion, are deserving of this praise during a most unpleasant time in my life. I have recently found myself in need of my police dept. First, Officer John Fanelli for responding to my call during a recent domestic violence incident. He was wonderful, and truly concerned about my well being! What a "gem". Second, Lt. Mark Williams, who is working with me on a separate incident. Again, he is a wonderful human being. That all should be like that.

RE: Lt. Mark Williams

Dear Chief Pylman:

I would like to take this opportunity to write to you regarding an officer of the Utica Police Department, Lieutenant Mark Williams. Lt. Williams is very conscientious and professional in the course of his duties with your department. He conducts a thorough and comprehensive investigation before proceeding with any action on behalf of the police department. It is without question why he has progressed through the ranks with the police department.

There is a very volatile situation in my neighborhood which has been escalating for nearly two years now. Many officers, sergeants and lieutenants have responded to calls during this time but none have been more responsive, sensitive, cognizant and a pleasure to speak with than Lt. Williams. So many times I have turned to him for guidance and he has always been more than willing to take the time to give complete explanations and, more importantly, understanding.

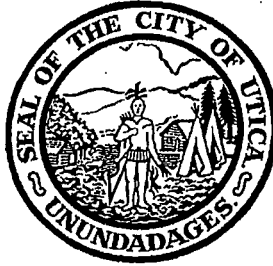

As a taxpayer in the city of Utica for approximately thirteen years and with all the negativity the police department has recently endured, I am pleased to be able to write to you on a positive note. I believe those who do an exemplary job should be recognized for their efforts and dedication. I recognize all of that and more in Lt. Mark Williams and I hope you recognize it as well.

Thank you for your time and, please, thank Lt. Williams, too.

Sincerely,
