3. NARRATIVE SECTION (This section is to be used to record specific and personal characteristics of this employee which are not adequately covered in the rating sections above. Any factors rated as a 1 or a 5 in the above sections must be articulated in this section.)

General Appearance: Ashley projects professionalism in her appearance and demeanor. Something she is frequently complimented for by the public.

Responsiveness to Supervision/Judgment: An issue came up with a women's conference about how many female officers would be allowed to attend. Ashley and Sgt. Kerry Carville wrote a letter to the deputy chief regarding same. The letter was viewed as insubordinate and usurping of the chain of command. A solution was later worked out with the administration that allowed the majority of female officers who wanted to go, attend.

Assignment Tasks: Ashley completes her investigations promptly and thoroughly. She also takes her roll call training responsibility seriously and ensures that the completed rosters are handed in, in a timely manner.

Attendance: Ashley used (6) sick days during this rating period.

Punctuality: Ashley always arrives early for her shifts and takes responsibility for the roll call material. She also reported early, several times, to attend physical training at the police academy.

Interaction with other Members of the Department: Ashley's not afraid to speak her mind and call someone out for not doing their job. If done diplomatically, this can be beneficial. We've had some mediations between Ashley and a couple of her subordinates, which were productive in nature.

Interaction with Public: I have seen a noticeable improvement in the way Ashley interacts with dispatch. She is more patient and aware of the obstacles the 911 center faces on a daily basis.

Teaching/Coaching of Subordinates: Ashley still actively participates with instruction at the police academy and is always willing to go out of her way to assist officers on the street.

How can this employee best improve his/her performance? (Include setting Career /Performance Goals).

To reiterate what I said the last rating period, Ashley should take the next Lieutenant's Exam that is offered. She is intelligent and possesses the skill set to be an upper level manager.

Sgt Berger carried herself professionally and with a transparent sense of duty as she provided me (a passerby) navigational aid thru town. A small gesture that went a long way. Small, but big enough for me to find this form and fill it out .

Subject: Re: Citizen Compliment

Sergeant Berger,

Today the wife of a retired UPD officer [REDACTED] came to see about a personal matter. After our conversation [REDACTED] made it a point to compliment you. Apparently Mrs. [REDACTED] met you about a week ago when you doing foot patrols on Francis Street. She described you as a very intelligent young woman, who represents our department proudly with your professionalism and demeanor. [REDACTED] also spoke about how the neighborhood is thrilled with seeing foot patrols in their neighborhood.

I want to personally thank you for representing the Utica Police Department proudly. Keep up the excellent work. Our positive interactions with the public at these troubled times in our country are critical to our success. It's good to see that you lead by example.

A copy of this email will be placed in your personnel file.

Thank you,

POLICE OFFICER ASHLEY CAVE

During the evening hours of January 31, 2011, several units responded to the Dari Del located on the city's east side in response to an armed robbery that had just occurred. The first units on scene interviewed the clerk and the suspect's information was obtained and given out to the other units responding. Based on this information, the suspect's home address was quickly determined. Soon thereafter, footprints near the scene were located and they were followed to the suspect's residence. A perimeter was established around the residence and surveillance of the residence was conducted. A short time later, an individual matching the description of the suspect in the robbery exited the residence, entered a vehicle and attempted to leave the area. A felony vehicle stop was conducted and the suspect was taken into custody without incident and proceeds from the robbery were recovered.

The quick response, teamwork, alertness and dedication to duty that Sergeants Sam Geddes and Dominick Nitti, Police Officers Shannon Acquaviva, Chris Faniglula, Michael Curley, Charles Goldstein, Scott Berger, Ashley Cave, Francis Kuhn, John Scaramuzzino and David Chirillo displayed enabled them to quickly remove a dangerous criminal from the street. They are a credit to themselves and the Utica Police Department.

POLICE OFFICER ASHLEY BERGER

On July 20, 2011, Officers Eric Weir and Ashley Berger were dispatched to the area of Taylor and Arthur regarding shots fired. Prior to their arrival, they were advised by dispatch to be on the lookout for a Hispanic male walking a pit-bull.

Upon their arrival, Officers Weir and Berger located a Hispanic male with a pit-bull walking west on Arthur Street. The officers approached him and ordered him to stop. The male continued walking and appeared to have dropped something in the bushes. With their weapons drawn, Weir and Berger ordered him to get on the ground and they were able to handcuff him and secure his dog. At that time after checking the bushes where he dropped something, they located a loaded 9 mm handgun.

Officers Weir and Berger are responsible for locating and taking into custody a potentially violent subject that was armed with a loaded handgun as well as taking a handgun off the street.

LETTER FOR FILE

Sergeant Ashley Berger, Investigator William Williams and Officer Michael Cerminaro

On January 8, 2018, at approximately 10:35 a.m., units were dispatched to the area of Conkling Ave. regarding a shots fired incident where a male had been struck. Upon speaking with the victim, they developed a suspect. That suspect was one of the city's top GIVE offenders.

Approximately an hour later, Investigator William Williams and Officer Michael Cerminaro of the Warrants Unit were patrolling the area of James St. and Seymour Ave. when they observed the suspect as a passenger in a tan-colored vehicle. They communicated their observations over the radio and Sergeant Ashley Berger immediately located the vehicle at the intersection of Pleasant St. and Kemble St. and conducted a vehicle stop. The suspect was then taken into custody by the officers and charged with attempted murder, robbery, and several firearms possession charges.

LETTER FOR FILE

Sergeant Ashley Berger, Officer Michael Cerminaro and Officer Christopher Manion

On Sunday, October 15, 2017, at around 11:30 a.m., Officer Michael Cerminaro was off duty and received a phone call from a criminal informant that had information on the whereabouts of a suspect wanted for murder. Officer Cerminaro then made contact via phone with Sergeant Ashley Berger who was the supervisor working the street. Officer Cerminaro provided Sgt. Berger with the information that the suspect was last seen entering an address on McQuade Ave. after exiting a specific make and model of vehicle.

Sgt. Berger contacted several zone units who then met with her to monitor the area of McQuade Ave. in an attempt to locate the suspect. After approximately twenty minutes of surveilling the area, Sgt. Ashley Berger observed the described vehicle pull out of a driveway on McQuade Ave. It began traveling northbound until reaching a red light at the intersection with South Street.

Sgt. Berger immediately advised Officer Christopher Manion over the radio to pull up to the stopped vehicle so that she could conduct a stop of the vehicle without it fleeing. Once Sgt. Berger conducted the traffic stop, the front seat passenger was positively identified as the suspect and was taken into custody by Officer Manion. The suspect was later charged with murder and criminal possession of a weapon.

LIEUTENANT DONALD CINQUE, SERGEANT ASHLEY BERGER and OFFICER RYAN KELLY

On September 21, 2013, Lt. Cinque was on patrol in the west Utica area when he observed a vehicle matching the description of a suspect vehicle involved in a recent shots fired incident. Lt. Cinque observed the operator of the vehicle commit a vehicle and traffic violation, at which point he conducted a traffic stop of the vehicle. Immediately upon conducting a stop of the vehicle, the operator exited the stopped vehicle and became aggressive towards Lt. Cinque in an attempt to distract him away from the vehicle and the passenger in the vehicle. Sgt. Ashley Berger and Police Officer Ryan Kelly arrived on scene to assist as a disorderly crowd began to gather around the officers. The operator was taken into custody for several violations at which time he resisted arrest. With the assistance of Sgt. Berger and Officer Kelly, all of the officers were able to maintain a secure scene and remove the passenger from the vehicle. During a subsequent inventory search of the stopped vehicle, a loaded 22 caliber handgun was located in the center console.

Due to Lt. Cinque's keen observation skills and with the assistance of Sgt. Berger and Officer Kelly, two dangerous individuals were arrested and charged with criminal possession of a weapon and a dangerous firearm was removed from the streets of Utica. These officers are a credit to themselves and to the Utica Police Department.

All,

On April 21, 2019 at about 0841 hours PO Scott Berger was involved in a motor vehicle accident at the intersection of Cornelia St and Oriskany St while operating marked patrol unit 51. PO Berger was operating Car 51 during routine patrol north on Cornelia St when he proceeded through the green traffic signal and was struck by Christine Rutkowski [REDACTED] operating a 2006 Volkswagen Beetle bearing New York registration [REDACTED] who was traveling east on Oriskany St.

Car 51 sustained substantial damage to the driver's side front and rear doors, along with all four of the side curtain air bags deploying. Car 51 was towed off rotation by Sciortino's to the Fleet Maintenance Shop. Rutkowski's vehicle sustained minimal damage to the front bumper and was driven from the scene by her. UFD responded to the scene for evaluations of both PO Berger and Rutkowski who both reported no injuries and signed off any further treatment at this time.

PO Gymburch secured photographs of the accident scene and completed a MV104A. There were no independent witnesses to this accident however, Enterprise Rental Car (409 Oriskany St) has exterior surveillance cameras. I will be following up at this location during my next tour of duty as they are closed today.

Duty Commander, Captain Kelly was notified of this incident via phone. I will be conducting the fact finding investigation regarding this incident.

To: Chief of Police,

Investigative Timeline

On December 16, 2020, I, received an email from Lobdell notifying me of the attached complaint, the RMS associated with the complaint is 20-46646.

Allegation(s);

1. During a phone call to the Lt's office, Lt. Berger called Lobdell a "Crackhead."

On 12/16/20, I, Sgt. H. Rios received a phone call from Linda Lobdell [REDACTED]. Lobdell contacted me to make a complaint against Lt. A. Berger in regards to Lt. Berger calling her a crackhead during a phone conversation between the two of them. Lt. Berger was talking to Lobdell in regards to constantly calling the Oneida County 911 Call Taking Center for none emergency situations.

Ms. Lobdell describes what she recalled as an unpleasant experience due to the way Lt. Berger conducted himself over the phone, when all she wanted was to speak to someone about her being arrested over calling the 911 Center;

- I call Utica NY police station to report the 911 person lying officer Berger said Linda no ones trying to arrest you your a crackhead and aruge with mark ok ur a crack smoker is what she said no I'm not she really offended me I'm stereo type because of her some officers treat me as if I'm less then because of her calling me crackhead I'm really bad about myself emotional stress undue emotional stress undue emotional hardship she caused very unprofessional I might have spelled name wrong she is liteutne Berger

On December 18, 2020, PSU sent Lt. A. Berger a narrative requests to be submitted by 12/23/20 to the Office of Professional Standards.

Incident Summary

On December 16, 2020 Lobdell submitted a Formal Complaint against Lt. Berger via on-line submission.

Said; that she called the Lts. Office to complain about the 911 Center sending the police to her house, and lying about her calling the 911 Center when she never did. That when she tried to explain to Lt. Berger of the false accusations (of her calling 911) Lt. Berger called her a "Crackhead"

PO Wadley was the responding officer to [REDACTED] and logged the call as follows;

[REDACTED]
Other

BWC 8720

Open Line with yelling. Mark Davis and Linda Lobdell both stated that they didn't need me and they didn't know why I was there.

Services Rendered

BWC footage of PO Wadley depicts him speaking to Mark Davis and Mark telling him that he is not needed.

In reviewing all reports and evidence related to this incident it appears as though police services were provided in a competent and professional manner while in accordance with Utica Police Department, Policy and Procedure and State and Federal laws., in review of PO Wadley's BWC it depicts him speaking to Mark Davis and Mark telling him that he is not needed.

Investigative findings.

On 12/23/20, the PSU received the narrative requested of Lt. Berger.

Lt. Berger describes the incident in the following manner in regards to the allegation;

"Linda continued to ramble and yell to which I would occasionally respond with "mmhrnm". She then became angry and told me that I didn't sound like I cared and it was unprofessional. I then asked Linda to forgive me for sounding that way however myself and officers are frustrated with her behavior of constantly calling the police after she smokes crack and argues with Mark (Mark Davis / her boyfriend) and then she calls the police because she wants us to kick Mark out and then when we can't make Mark leave she gets angry with us and uncooperative. Before I was able to continue she interrupted me and yelled "Did you just call me a crackhead?!" I reiterated to Linda that she is a "crack user" and not a "crackhead". She was then obsessing saying I called her a crackhead. I reminded Linda that she has a documented history of crack use but that I referred to her as a crack user and not a crackhead. At that point she was just yelling and ranting so I asked her if there was anything else I could help her with and when she didn't respond with anything logical I ended the call."

Linda has generated calls for service on a near daily basis, sometimes multiple times a day, for the last 6 years. The majority of the time she is uncooperative, yells and screams at officers - up to and including calling our African American officers the "N" word, and it is typically because they will not arrest or remove Mark Davis from the home. She's nearly always in an intoxicated condition. The domestic between her and Mark are typically verbal and are arguments over money (for drugs and alcohol), and buying/sharing drugs or alcohol. My comment to Linda about her and mark smoking crack together and then arguing was a statement of fact and was not said in a way meant to be insulting, nor did I use the derogatory language of "Linda you're a crackhead". I even reiterated this fact to her several times.

Respectfully
Submitted, Lt.
Ashley Berger

Summary of Findings

We cannot pretend to know the tone or temperament of the conversation that took place between Berger and Lobdell, but we can make an inference as to what it was by reading Lt. Berger's narrative, specifically, where she says;

"I then asked Linda to forgive me for sounding that way however myself and officers are frustrated with her behavior of constantly calling the police after she smokes crack and argues with Mark," as shown above Lobdell has 340 calls in 3 years, with 11 being classified [REDACTED].

Regarding the allegation alleged by Lobdell, that Lt. Berger called her a "Crackhead" has not been verified and the basis for this complaint being closed as "Not Sustained" insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove the allegation. We cannot prove by the preponderance of evidence (51%) that "Services were not provided in a competent and professional manner while in accordance with Utica Police Department, Policy and Procedure along with State and Federal laws.

Policy Violations.

None

Ancillary Issues.

Lt. Beger has been found to be in violation of the following Utica Police Policy and Procedures; not for calling Lobdell a "Crackhead" but for being a member of the Command Staff and referring to Lobdell as a "Crack User," and letting her emotions for the total number of times that the police were called, and familiarity with Lobdell ([REDACTED]) demeaning her verbally for being a substance abuser.

INTRA-AGENCY MEMORANDUMSUBJECT: Personnel Complaint re: Linda LobdellTO: Chief of Police: Mark W. Williams

On December 16, 2020 I reported to the Utica Police Department, Patrol Division, A-1, for the hours of 2345-0000. I was assigned as the Squad Commander.

Sometime after 0617 hours I received a call in the Squad Commander's Office from a woman I know to be Linda Lobdell [REDACTED]. I immediately recognized Linda's voice as I am familiar with her from numerous police encounters and that she frequently calls the Squad Commander's Office. Linda sounded to be in an intoxicated and manic state, which is typical of her behavior both on the street and when she calls the office. Linda was yelling and all over the place but the gist of what she was saying was that she was calling a female officer a liar.

I knew from listening to the radio and reviewing calls in RMS that Linda had called the police twice during our shift prior to our phone conversation. Each time was a 911 hang up call and she was uncooperative with officers, both of which are typical behavior for her. I also knew that there were no female officers working other than myself so she had to be referring to the female dispatcher she spoke to on the phone. I asked Linda what the issue was and she said that the "officer" was lying on her, saying that she called 911 when she never did. I advised Linda that dispatch can see the phone number and GPS the address that someone is calling from when they call 911 so the dispatcher would know it was her. I also advised her that she had been talking to a dispatcher and not an officer. Linda then said her phone called 911 but she didn't and the dispatcher shouldn't lie like that and we're all making her out to be a criminal and we're trying to lock her up. I told Linda that no one was trying to lock her up and she hadn't been arrested in years.

Linda continued to ramble and yell to which I would occasionally respond with "mmhmm". She then became angry and told me that I didn't sound like I cared and it was unprofessional. I then asked Linda to forgive me for sounding that way however myself and officers are frustrated with her behavior of constantly calling the police after she smokes crack and argues with Mark (Mark Davis / her boyfriend) and then she calls the police because she wants us to kick Mark out and then when we can't make Mark leave she gets angry with us and uncooperative. Before I was able to continue she interrupted me and yelled "Did you just call me a crackhead?!" I reiterated to Linda that she is a "crack user" and not a "crackhead". She was then obsessing saying I called her a crackhead. I reminded Linda that she has a documented history of crack use but that I referred to her as a crack user and not a crackhead. At that point she was just yelling and ranting so I asked her if there was anything else I could help her with and when she didn't respond with anything logical I ended the call.

Linda has generated calls for service on a near daily basis, sometimes multiple times a day, for the last 6 years. The majority of the time she is uncooperative, yells and screams at officers - up to and including calling our African American officers the "N" word, and it is typically because they will not arrest or remove Mark Davis from the home. She is nearly always in an intoxicated condition. The domestic disputes between her and Mark are typically verbal and are arguments over money (for drugs or alcohol), and buying/sharing drugs or alcohol. My comment to Linda about her and Mark smoking crack together and then arguing was a statement of fact and was not said in a way meant to be insulting, nor did I use the derogatory language of "Linda you're a crackhead". I even reiterated this fact to her several times.

NAME: [REDACTED]

Linda called the Squad Commander's Office again on the morning of December 18th and was again yelling about wanting to "make a complaint on somebody" but when she realized it was me on the phone she said she didn't want to talk to me and would call back later. This is the only personal contact I've had with Linda since she made this personnel complaint on December 17th, however she has continued to call the police for service.

Respectfully Submitted,
Lt. Ashley Berger

Infectious Disease (1 1/4hrs) - Sgt. Shaffer

DNA Testing (1/2) - Jenn Dormio

Employee Harassment (1hr) - Inv. Nicholson

Defensive Tactics- (4hrs) DT Staff

The October DT in-service dates are going to be 4 hours a pop. We should teach the following:

-Handcuffing (controlling a cuffed prisoner)

-Handcuffing (using good verbal skills)

-Handcuffing (various threat levels)

-baton work (forward strike, blocks, front jab, retention)

-simple control moves (your favorite wristy twisty moves)

Please concentrate on using good verbal skills to avoid a physical confrontation and on proper handcuffing and controlling a person in handcuffs (don't let go and "put the chain on the floor"). As always we need to talk about article 35 and use of force policy.

Thank you,

JW
