Gentlemen,

I just received and reviewed the 2017 Burglary Statistics and I wanted to say thank you, once again. Its obvious that due to your hard work our arrest numbers were up and burglaries were down 11%. In fact Burglary 3rd's at 27 arrests were up 50%, Burglary 2nd stayed the same at 29 arrests and Burglary 1st arrests were up 200% to 9 !

Those numbers are very impressive, especially when you consider 698 cases were assigned the unit and the difficulty in solving property crimes.

Thank you for all your hard work,

Dear Chief Williams:

I am writing to commend one of your police officers and to thank you for his assistance on Wednesday, July 9, 2014.

I am the new Executive Director of Youth Empowerment Project. In the 9 months I have been in this job, I have been working very hard to repair this agency's reputation. For example, as of January 1, 2014, I moved out of 404-408 Court Street into a professional office at Mill Square in the Brodock Press Building. In October 2013, 2 weeks after I started, I met Lennie Hite in the DA's office and I have been working with him to investigate questionable actions on the part of the previous Executive Director. Financially, I am working with New York State and the IRS to repay liabilities brought on by this previous Executive Director. Additionally, I complete background checks on full and part-time staff-which was never done in the past. During a routine background check on July 7, 2014, I learned that a part-time field worker was arrested by the New Hartford Police Department on May 23, 2014, charged with Petit Larceny at Sangertown Square Mall. Fearing that she might become physically aggressive when I terminated her because of what I learned about her behaviors toward staff in the past, I called the Utica Police Department to request help. Dispatch took me seriously and sent an officer here. Officer Singe arrived at approximately 3:15 pm. Before he arrived, this field worker was arguing with me and becoming angrier, but when she saw him in the window of one office door, she immediately exited out the other office door. When I told him what her name was, he stated that he knew her well because of her negative reputation with the police.

Chief Williams, I cannot stress how relieved I was to see Officer Singe.
He was a calming presence during a potentially volatile situation.
Thank you both so very much for making our community safer.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

I am writing to thank you, Lieutenant Ciffonelli and Officer Singe for the assistance provided to me on Tuesday, July 3, 2013 at the BOCES Utica ACCESS Site. I had the unfortunate task of notifying a student that he was being terminated from our nurse training program. SUBJECT: Letter Of Appreciation - Officer David Singe

On behalf of the Internal Revenue Service – Criminal Investigation Division, I would like to thank Utica Police Officer David Singe for his outstanding support during the execution of a search warrant this past summer at a business location on Bleecker Street in Utica, NY. UNIT CITATION

Awarded to

BURGLARY UNIT

OFFICER ROBERT HARTNETT and OFFICER DAVID SINGE

This unit is made up of two officers, Robert Hartnett and David Singe. Together in 2016, they investigated almost 800 burglaries, plus other "in progress" felonies. Up until very recently, this unit had three investigators to carry the caseload. Due to budgetary cuts and limitations, the unit was cut back to two investigators. However, the case load continues to remain constant. This leaves two to do the work of three with the same expected results.

During 2016, they showed a 22% increase in Burglary 1st, 2nd & 3rd arrests over the 2015 members of the unit. Together they accounted for almost 100 arrests on some of the most difficult cases to work. Some of the arrests included two cousins who admitted to 6 burglaries in south Utica, the arrest of several offenders who together stole over 10 dirt bikes. At a Richardson Avenue residence, working along with GIVE, they were able to recover 11 illegally possessed guns that were stolen and bound for the streets. They solved five separate burglary cases at a business located on Bleecker St. That suspect was located and charged with all 5 burglaries.

Over the course of the year, Officers Hartnett and Singe went to every pawn/swap shop in Utica and advised the owners and staff regarding their compliance with the county law that governs them. This took a lot of research and coordination with many agencies. Both officers were able to sift through all the data and on many occasions revisited those shops. Anyone not in compliance was issued appearance tickets and instructions on how to correct their actions. Both officers remained focused on the task at hand over the many months it took to complete this, during which they showed their investigative skill, dedication and did a great job with this detail.

The Utica Police Department is fortunate to have Officers Robert Hartnett and David Singe assigned to the Burglary Unit. They both show an eagerness and enthusiasm that is second to none. They never complain about the enormous caseload they are responsible for and move forward on each and every case with the same vigor and passion. They work together as a tightknit team and take ownership of each case, regardless of who is the lead investigator. They perform above and beyond in their actions and dedication.

SERGEANT SAMUEL GEDDES and OFFICER DAVID SINGE

On Monday, November 6, 2017, officers were dispatched to a residence in the city's Cornhill area regarding a home invasion. While in route, dispatch advised that the suspect fled the scene on foot. Upon officers' arrival, information was gathered and it was learned that the suspect, who was armed with a handgun, had entered a multi-dwelling apartment house.

A perimeter was established and an alarm was activated within one of the apartments. Upon gaining entry, a search was completed and the suspect was located and taken into custody without incident. During the arrest, a loaded semi-automatic handgun, as described by the victim, was recovered.

The quick response, teamwork and dedication to duty that Sergeant Geddes and Officers Singe, Fitzgerald, Giruzzi, Mahaffy and Morinitti displayed enabled them to swiftly remove this dangerous felon from the street. They reflect honor on themselves and the entire Utica Police Department.

LETTER FOR FILE

Investigator Aaron Donaldson, Investigator Robert Hartnett and Investigator David Singe

On December 21, 2016, it was reported to the Utica Police Department that a residence on Richardson Avenue was burglarized and several rifles and handguns were stolen. The case was assigned to Investigator David Singe and he began investigating immediately. Investigator Singe recognized the severity of the incident and enlisted the help of his partner, Investigator Robert Harnett. Together they began to piece together some of the facts of the case, while the GIVE Investigator, Aaron Donaldson, reached out to his network of confidential informants.

Working as a team, the three investigators developed a suspect and set up a surveillance operation while a search warrant was drawn for a residence believed to house the weapons. Once the warrant was secured, the SWAT team made entry and took the suspect into custody.

Their investigative skills and tenacity paid off as 9 of the stolen guns, which were destined for the street, were recovered inside the suspect's house.

OFFICER DAVID SINGE

On July 23, 2014, at around 11:30 a.m., Officer Singe conducted a citizen stop of a male he observed entering and exiting an address that is known for drug activity on Maple St. This address had also just been the location of a confirmed shots fired incident earlier that morning. Officer Singe identified and stopped the male and interviewed him. During his interview, Officer Singe discovered that the subject was lying to him about his activity and was extremely nervous and was shaking. At one point during the interview, the subject began reaching for his waistband, leading Officer Singe to believe that he was concealing either narcotics or a weapon. Officer Singe then conducted a pat frisk of the male and located a loaded .32 caliber revolver in his waistband. The subject was then taken into custody and charged with weapons possession.

Because of Officer Singe's keen observations and investigative skills, a loaded firearm was removed from the street. Officer Singe brings honor to himself and the entire Utica Police Department.

Certificate of Commendation

HONORABLE SERVICE

Awarded to

POLICE OFFICER DAVID SINGE

On August 17, 2012, Officers Goldstem, Paladino, Singe and Petrie were working on Varick Street relative to Saranac Thursday when they were approached by a female who had been a victim of a menacing with a handgun earlier on the West side of Utica. The victim identified the suspect in the menacing to the officers and they made a tactical approach of the suspect who was quickly taken into custody in the midst of the Varick Street party goers. The suspect was found to be in possession of a loaded handgun.

The quick response, teamwork and dedication to duty enabled Officers Goldstem, Paladino, Singe and Trooper Petrie to remove this dangerous individual and an illegal handgun from the street. They are a credit to themselves, the Utica Police Department, and the New York State Police.
